

Human Factor Training – Is it working?

Monday 28th November 2016, HQS WELLINGTON, London

09.30 Registration and refreshments

10.00 Welcome Address

Dr Alan Wall, IAMI Vice Chairman of IAMI

10.10

Marc Williams, Maritime and Coastguard Agency

Standards and Training in HELM Current UK Policy Update

10.40

Martin Shaw, Marine Operations and Assurance Management Solutions Ltd

Human Element Training – Putting it in context

11.10

Morning Coffee

11.30

Dr Iris Acejo - Research Associate Seafarers International Research Centre, Cardiff University

Social aspects on-board affecting well being of the seafarer

12.00

Lunch

12.45

Paul Bennett, Southampton University

Leadership Training at Sea

13.15

Capt. Rick Thomas, The Honourable Company of Air Pilots

Human Factors in Aviation

13.45

Captain Nick Nash of Princess Cruises CSMART Center for Simulator Maritime Training - The training, on board verification and use of the resource management processes.

14.30

Afternoon Tea

- 15.00 Wilko C. Bruhn - Fraunhofer-Center for Maritime Logistics and Services CML
MUNIN unmanned ship project – autonomy in shipping
- 15.45 Dr Chris Houghton, Maritime Education Consultant
Behavioural based safety (BBS) and values-based behaviour and how they impact on safety at Sea
- 16.30 Summary & Closing

Sponsored By

The Leader in Maritime e-Learning
ONBOARD | ONSHORE | ONLINE

Clyde Training
Solutions

MLA
COLLEGE

